FCC COMMISSIONER BAKER ANNOUNCES STAFF CHANGES

Washington, DC – Federal Communications Commissioner Meredith Attwell Baker announced today that Kari Amstutz, the Commissioner’s Confidential Assistant, has left the Commission to return to Minnesota. “Kari has been a wonderful member of my team. I thank her for her contributions during her time in our office and wish her every success in her future pursuits.”

Lori Alexiou will join Commissioner Baker’s staff as her new Confidential Assistant. Lori most recently was the Litigation Specialist in the Commission’s Office of General Counsel. “I’m thrilled to have Lori join us. Her experience and knowledge of the Commission will be a great asset,” said Baker.
